Welcome to Where Every Child Is A Star Performing Arts Camp!

We have planned another exciting summer program filled with fun and educational events for our students, and integrated them with classes that will teach the skills and discipline required of all professional artists. Each camper will receive classes in voice, dance, drama, piano, and music theory, taught by a staff that is among the best in their field in the nation. We maintain an excellent reputation in the community thanks to our devotion to providing the best camp experience to each child. Your satisfaction is of the paramount importance to us.
